ICED delivers Responsible Gambling messages in Bridgewater

October 13, 2010 – Bridgewater: An Interactive Community Education Display (ICED) delivering responsible gambling education will visit the Bridgewater Mall on Thursday, October 14 from 1:00 p.m. – 5:00 p.m.. The Nova Scotia Gaming Corporation invites the public to visit the display and test their knowledge of responsible gambling behaviour.

The interactive display provides visitors with the information and tools they need to make informed play decisions, including the risks associated with gambling and ways to gamble responsibly.

For more information on responsible gambling, visit www.nsgc.ca.
