Gaming CEO leaves for Top Job at Credit Union

December 1, 2010 – Halifax: The Nova Scotia Gaming Corporation Board of Directors today announced that Marie Mullally will be leaving the organization as President & CEO to take the position of President & CEO of Credit Union Atlantic.

“Marie has done a tremendous job for NSGC and for the Province”, said Gordon Gillis, Chair of Board for NSGC. “She was instrumental in putting Nova Scotia on the map for innovative responsible gambling programs that received international nods. She is passionate, professional and is responsible for managing the business of gaming in this Province in a socially responsible and economically sustainable manner. While we will miss her, we wish her tremendous success in her new role.”

Nova Scotia was one of the first jurisdictions in the world to receive the highest certification from the World Lottery Association for its responsible gaming standards.

“I am proud of the work that has been done in the last ten years and I am proud to have worked with such a dedicated team.” said Ms. Mullally who will maintain her position until January 14, 2011.

Steve MacDonald, a longtime executive and current VP of Gaming Operations, will be Acting President & CEO. “Steve has already proven his outstanding leadership capabilities at NSGC,” said Mr. Gillis. “His experience and knowledge of the industry will continue to be very valuable for the organization in this capacity.”
